You can easily drive from the dense wilderness to a coastal town within an hour, and along the way pass sweeping meadows, placid lakes, and lush forests.

For nature lovers, New England offers a one-of-a-kind experience where you can observe multiple landscapes in a day. Additionally, you may also observe some of the region's quintessential wildlife, such as deer, pheasants, and foxes from your hotel's property. Centuries of History

New England offers the perfect blend of historic architecture and modern conveniences. You can find stunning, centuries-old buildings and classic stone walls, alongside present-day parks and current attractions. Many sites have been painstakingly preserved or lovingly restored and maintained as modern office buildings, shops, and even restaurants.
